

More Caribbean, More Go! Spirit Airlines Celebrates New Service to Cap-Haïtien

April 12, 2018

Service to St. Maarten resumes and new service to St. Croix are among increased services to more of the Caribbean this spring

MIRAMAR, Fla., April 12, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amazing beaches and amazing people are waiting to greet you as Spirit Airlines (NYSE:SAVE) grows in the Caribbean once again! On April 12, 2018, Spirit will connect Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport (FLL) to Cap-Haïtien International Airport (CAP) in Haiti's second largest city. This new flight marks the second destination for Spirit in Haiti, complementing existing service to Port-au-Prince (PAP).

Additionally, low fare flights to St. Maarten's Princess Juliana International Airport (SXM) resume on May 5, 2018 as recovery continues and tourism opportunities grow after the impact of last year's hurricanes. Spirit will also connect South Florida to St. Croix's Henry E. Rohlsen Airport (STX), Spirit's second destination in the U.S. Virgin Islands, starting on May 24, 2018.

Spirit's commitment to expansion in the Caribbean also includes expanded seasonal daily service from Fort Lauderdale to Norman Manley International Airport (KIN) in Kingston, Jamaica.

These new and expanded services are a growing part of Spirit's commitment to making air travel more affordable to the Caribbean for years to come.

Caribbean service expansion / resumption:

Routes:	Start Date	Frequency
Fort Lauderdale (FLL) to/from
Cap-Haïtien, Haiti (CAP)	April 12, 2018	3x weekly, year-round
Kingston, Jamaica (KIN)	April 12, 2018	Daily, seasonal
St. Maarten (SXM)	May 5, 2018	Saturdays, year-round
St. Croix (STX)	May 24, 2018	3x weekly, year-round

"Spirit is proud to support the Caribbean with its recovery, having provided relief flights for more than 3,000 people and transported more than 120,000 pounds of relief supplies to date," said Mark Kopczak, Spirit Vice President of Network Planning. "The courage and dedication of the people of the Caribbean has been more than impressive, and we are excited to bring more of our Guests there to enjoy all the islands have to offer."
