

More Go, Coming Right Up! Spirit Airlines Extends Schedule through February 2019 with Seven New Routes

June 7, 2018

Seven nonstop routes debut just in time for holiday travel planning

MIRAMAR, Fla., June 07, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- From sandy beaches to soaring skyscrapers, it just got easier to plan your next More Go adventure! Today, Spirit Airlines announced it has extended its booking schedule through February 13, 2019, while adding seven exciting new routes. Spirit Guests can now book ultra-low fares for the holiday travel season and check out new routes, including warm weather getaways.

"We know many of our Guests love to plan ahead and save," said Mark Kopczak, Spirit Airlines' Vice President of Network Planning. "By extending our booking schedule, Guests have the opportunity to lock in low fares for the holiday travel season. With the addition of several new routes, they'll have even more destinations to choose for their winter getaways."

As Spirit's booking schedule extends, the addition of several new routes will connect more Guests to some of the country's most beautiful places. Guests living in Kansas City, Newark, Philadelphia, Detroit, and Atlanta will now have more options when planning their next vacation.

Philadelphia Gets More Florida Sunshine!

Philadelphia, get ready to warm up on the beach in sunny Florida! On December 13, Spirit will launch seasonal service to Fort Myers' Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW). The very next day, on December 14, flights will launch to Tampa International Airport (TPA). Guests can hop on a flight four times weekly to Tampa and three times weekly to Fort Myers.

New to Newark!

The Tri-State Area is getting ready for some southern charm! Beginning September 6, Spirit will provide daily year-round nonstop service between Newark Liberty International Airport (EWR) and Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (ATL).

Kansas City, Grab a Beach Umbrella and Go!

Kansas City it's time for a little R&R on the beach! Starting November 9, Spirit will launch nonstop seasonal flights to sunny South Florida with service to and from Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport (FLL) four times weekly.

Detroit Gets More Sunny Options For Winter!

Introducing another option for Detroit Guests to exchange the snow for the sand! Starting December 21, Spirit will launch seasonal service running 4 times weekly between Detroit Metro Airport (DTW) and Palm Beach International Airport (PBI) in beautiful West Palm Beach, Florida.

Myrtle Beach Gets More Go!

Now there are more ways to get to and from lovely Myrtle Beach! Starting November 10, Spirit will add nonstop year-round service between Myrtle Beach International Airport (MYR) and Orlando International Airport (MCO), complementing existing service between Myrtle Beach and Fort Lauderdale. Also on November 10, Spirit will now provide year-round service between Myrtle Beach and Baltimore-Washington International Airport (BWI), previously this route was seasonal. Both routes provide service 2 times weekly.
